The completely updated and expanded version of the 1987 classic hailed by parents and educators everywhere.

This adventure/autobiography begins with the dream of a fourteen-year-old boy to build a fishing schooner and sail around the world. It starts with the collection of all possible money, then the purchase of a secondhand hard pine from the old textile mills. Eleven years along in the construction with the total support of his family, he quit his full-time job, took out a promissory note from the bank. Earle used a great deal of improvisations to keep the costs down. Regardless of that, the money was spent in one year. His chapters go on to mention the interesting characters, the ups and downs, the ever-present all-around strain on the family, which propelled the vessel onto its completion in fourteen years! You the reader will be captivated with the details of building the schooner, the humorous situations, and all

None of us knows what the future holds, but Peter March certainly didn't know this was to be his last long voyage. A "man of the sea" since early childhood, Peter once said he would spend his last days on his beloved boat on the sometimes wild, but ever wonderful ocean. Fate, though, has its own control and now as Peter slowly sinks into the murky waters of Alzheimer's disease perhaps some of my questions about this last voyage on Obsidienne have been answered. I wonder now whether we would have savoured the trip more if we had known it was to be for both of us the last long sailing adventure on our dear Obsidienne? - Julie Jamieson
