Volume 5 of the Cambridge World
History series
uncovers the cross-
cultural exchange
and conquest, and the accompanying growth of regional and trans-regional states, religions, and economic systems, during the period 500 to 1500 CE. The volume begins by outlining a series of core issues and processes across the world, including human relations with nature, gender and scientific knowledge, technologies, and text-based religious systems that accompanied these.

The final section surveys the development of centralized regional states and empires in both the eastern and western hemispheres.

Together these
